

AFLiCo JET 2016 - Université Paris Ouest Nanterre La Défense - France
Cognitive linguistics before and after the quantitative turn 27 mai 2016

sessions	time	Amphi Max Weber - bâtiment W (opposite the A building)
	9am - 9.30	opening
session 1	9.30 - 10	Anissa Berracheche, Dylan Glynn (Université Paris 8) Implicit attitudes in politics: Applying the profile-based approach to critical analysis
	10 - 10.30	Gilles COL, Charlotte Danino, Julien Rault (Université de Poitiers) Que peut apporter une expérimentation psychologique pour une analyse sémantique cognitive ? Étude du cas de l'unité « voilà ».
	10.30 - 11	Craig Hamilton (Université de Haute Alsace) On the Use of Empirical Evidence in Cognitive Linguistics
	11 - 11.30	coffee break
session 2	11.30 - 12.00	Emilie L'Hôte (Paris Diderot University) Defining paradigms and metaphorical models: the case of POLITICS in British discourse
	12.00 - 12.30	Kristina Dziallas (University of Vienna) Sexist and Homophobic Metaphors in English, French, German and Spanish: Perception of Intensity and Frequency
	12.30 - 2.15pm	lunch board meeting of the AFLiCo General meeting of the AFLiCo (for AFLiCo members)
session 3	2.15 - 2.45	Cécile Douet (UMR 8163 Savoirs, Textes, Langages, Lille 3) Cross-linguistic psycholinguistic study of the cognitive impact of language typologies
	2.45 - 3.15	Lauren McIntosh (University of Western Ontario) Analysis of Pronouns and Pragmatics in Alzheimer's Disease
	3.15 - 3.45	Frédéric Isel (UMR 7114 MoDyCo - Paris Ouest) When Linguistics meets Neuroscience: New light on the neurofunctional architecture of sentence comprehension models
	3.45 - 4.15	coffee break
keynote	4.15 - 5.15	Ewa Dabrowska (University of Northumbria) Aptitude, focus on form and motivation in er... first language acquisition
	5.15 - 6	closing remarks